

Pressio®-Rings BlackLine wall penetration seals

- Split seal for retrofit applications
- Also available as UNIVERSAL type with "onion ring" technology
- Pressure plates made of high-strength quality Polyamide PA6-30
- District heating version with 2×40 mm soft rubber
- Double sealing standard
- Self locking nuts
- Extension ring to the system
- No misleading integrated torque controls
- Safe and quick installation
- Simple opening for retrofit applications
- Tight against pressing water and gas
- Radon tightness IAF tested
- Also available in special district heating dimensions typ FW
- Takes into account pipe tolerances of EN 253 for preinsulated pipe
- Takes into account the ovality of coils for district heating pipes
- Low tightening torque due to extra soft high quality rubber - low risk of deformation on the pipe tight up to 1.5 bar

